

For immediate release

The best of fall in Brome-Missisquoi Relax, Quebec's wine region beckons!

Brome-Missisquoi, September 7, 2010 – In Brome-Missisquoi the vacation continues into the fall, with an array of outdoor activities available! The region remains unbeatable in the fall when it comes to admiring the colourful mountain landscapes, to taking part in the celebrations during the grape harvest and tasting the regional products, for an outing on foot or by bicycle, with family or a loved one, or to take part in the numerous cultural, environmental and sporting events that continue into the month of October.

The grape harvest... the Wine Route celebrates

A first! This year the Brome-Missisquoi Wine Route is celebrating during the grape harvest, which spans from September 15 to October 15. Restaurants, B&B's and inns, spas, art galleries, ski hills and... of course wineries will be doing everything to allow visitors to fully enjoy the pleasures of the fall in one of the most beautiful regions of Quebec. Head off to discover an unforgettable wine experience.

www.laroutedesvins.ca

Mont Sutton fall festival

For every hiker an outing and a vast choice of activities for everyone! Celebrate the fall at Mont SUTTON's fall festival! Some colourful innovations have been added to the 50 activities and workshops, to offer a truly dazzling program! Come take advantage of the fall for five weekends, take in the air and admire the breathtaking landscapes of the Eastern Townships at the Panoramaduodlacôte! From September 18 to October 18.

<http://www.montsutton.com/en/activities/detail-activities-sutton.php?id=410>

Action at Ski Bromont

Take advantage of the best time of year for mountain biking at Ski Bromont until October 17. At the same time discover the region's magnificent colourful landscapes from the top of the mountain with a chair lift ride. The mountain also offers hiking trails for the whole family. On September 18, a unique mountain biking event will also feature activities, DJ, booths and more.

www.skibromont.com

Project Ecosphere – an environmental event

The fifth edition of the wide-ranging environmental fair will be held on September 25 and 26 in the village of Brome, Quebec. Dedicated entirely to sustainable development and the environment, this organic fair has as its primary goal informing and raising the awareness of the general public by bringing together the main actors in the environmental field. On the menu: Lectures, performances, information booths and much more. Stephen Guilbeault will be the honorary president, Christian Bégin the spokesman and Charles Tisseyre the featured lecturer.

www.projetecosphere.org

Duck Festival – 2010 will be the year of the DUCK!

In 2010 the Duck Festival offers more activities, more contests, more duck to taste, workshops, lectures and local products that go perfectly with duck. Participating restaurants will offer special menus to celebrate fall and delicious duck. September 18, 19, 25 and 26.

www.canardenfete.com

La Tournée des 20 – Artists and artisans welcome you

Between September 18 and October 11, during the colourful weekends, more than 20 artists and artisans invite you into their galleries and studios so that you can discover all of the creativity that exists in Brome-Missisquoi. See our artists at work. www.tourneedes20.com

Other activities to discover

Caballista, Quebec equestrian games in Bromont, from September 16 to 19 – www.feq.qc.ca

Festival de Jazz de Sutton, September 17 – www.festival-jazz-sutton.com

The Missisquoi Museum's Annual Apple Pie Festival on September 19 - www.museemissisquoi.ca

Sutton en blues, October 16 to November 20 – www.productionskazou.com

Discover all the region's tourism has to offer at www.tourismebrome-missisquoi.ca

Follow us on

-30-

* Contact me if you need photos to illustrate your articles!

Source: Cynthia Langevin
Communications Advisor
E-Mail: clangevin@cldbmqc.ca
Telephone : 450-266-4928 extension 243