artistry it offers at the 3rd Annual Knowlton Antique Glass Open House, held in the Centennial Building, Museum Grounds, 130 Lakeside, Knowlton.

This Annual Event is presented free for the public to browse, touch and learn about how glass came to North America, how it evolved in 100 years and how it can be used everyday in today's lifestyle. Yes!, it can be used everyday and enjoyed as much as it was in its' original days. Glass is something that is part of our history and at this special showing you will see periods of Early Blown 1820 -1860, Early Flint - 1860's (Leaded Glass), as well as Pressed - 1870 -1910 , Victorian , Elegant Glass - 1920 -1940, Cornflower Glass, Depression Glass and even Vintage Glass of the 1960's. Over 3000 pieces of Glass will be presented in both clear and coloured, Canadian and American. All of the glass at this show is for sale and prices will start at just $ 25.00!

When asked about why Antique Glass is so popular today? Antique Glass Dealer and Expert Sean George stated “ People love the history behind every piece and the fact that it can be used and sometimes adapted to use in our life today. It is fun, functional and affordable and will last your lifetime and makes superb gifts for any occasion!”

The Third Annual Knowlton Antique Glass Open House/ Show and Sale will be held on Friday October 8th from 12 Noon - 6 p.m., Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. and Holiday Monday from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. Free Admission!! Free Education!! If you have an Antique Glass item that you have always wondered about the history or value, bring it along and Sean George will give his best opinion!!
